

DAO

Att.:

AN

Ch 23 CW. 13 AXEMAN 152B-1

August 6, 1985

VIETNAMESE REFUGEE ATTACKS SEVERAL PEOPLE WITH BUTCHER KNIFE AND AXE

se adults and a six-year-old girl were seriously wounded yesterday when 0-year-old Vietnamese refugee, SC with residence in SD
SD ran amuck armed with a butcher knife and axe.

B.T. carried the following report about the dramatic episode which took place ittle after noon yesterday:

Armed with a butcher axe in one hand and a sharp-edged knife in the other hand, struck at everything and everybody in his way.

In less than ten minutes four people were brutally assaulted. A woman tried sperately to flee from SC, but was caught up, hit with the axe and en knifed.

A father and his daughter were terribly maltreated. The father used his own dy as a shield to save the girl.

The gory drama ended in front of a grill bar on Holmbladsgade 58. A 70-year-old man was hit with the butcher axe and was found in a pool of blood.

The man with the butcher weapons was arrested by a police squad at 12.13 yesterday.

The tabloid also carried drawings (see page three) with the drama described oint by point:

- (1) A 39-year-old woman, who is the mother of several children, was hit with the xe at Prags Boulevard. Blood flowed from the wound, and the terror-struck woman fled.
- (2) The woman stumbled on a slope near the community center. The axe man went for er and stuck her with the butcher knife.

(3) The victim then managed to drag herself to the lawn nearby and dropped in a flowerbed.

(4) A father fought desperately here to save his daughter of six. Father and daughter were axed and knifed down.

(5) Holmbladsgade 58: The Vietnamese man's fourth victim, a 70-year-old woman, did not notice anything until she was laying in a pool of blood on the sidewalk. Her right ear was almost cut off.

(6) The maniac's massacre ended here. At the streetcorner of Lüneborggade and Holmbladsgade two officers from a police riot squad got the safety off their pistols to shoot, and the axe maniac then surrendered.

---
Several hours later, it was announced from the hospitals that the lives of the victims were not in danger any more after they had been operated.